
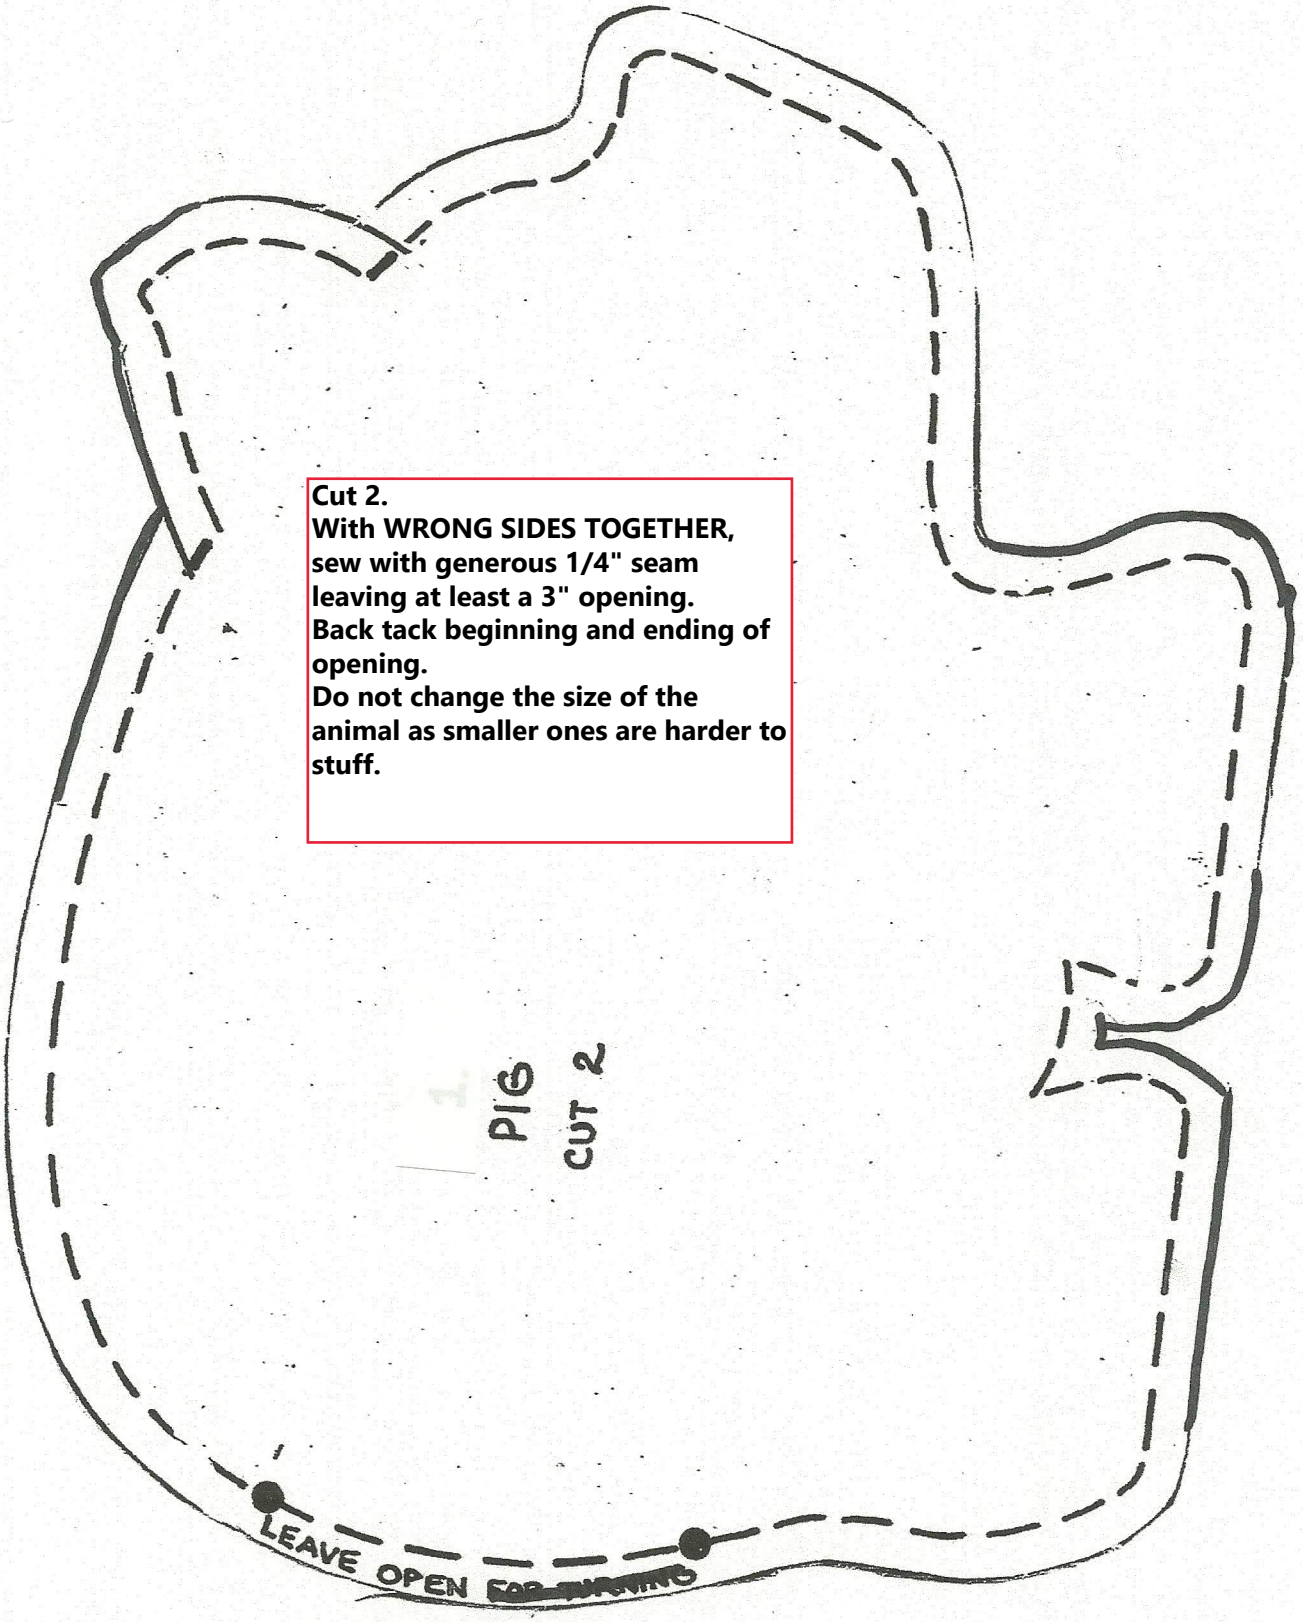
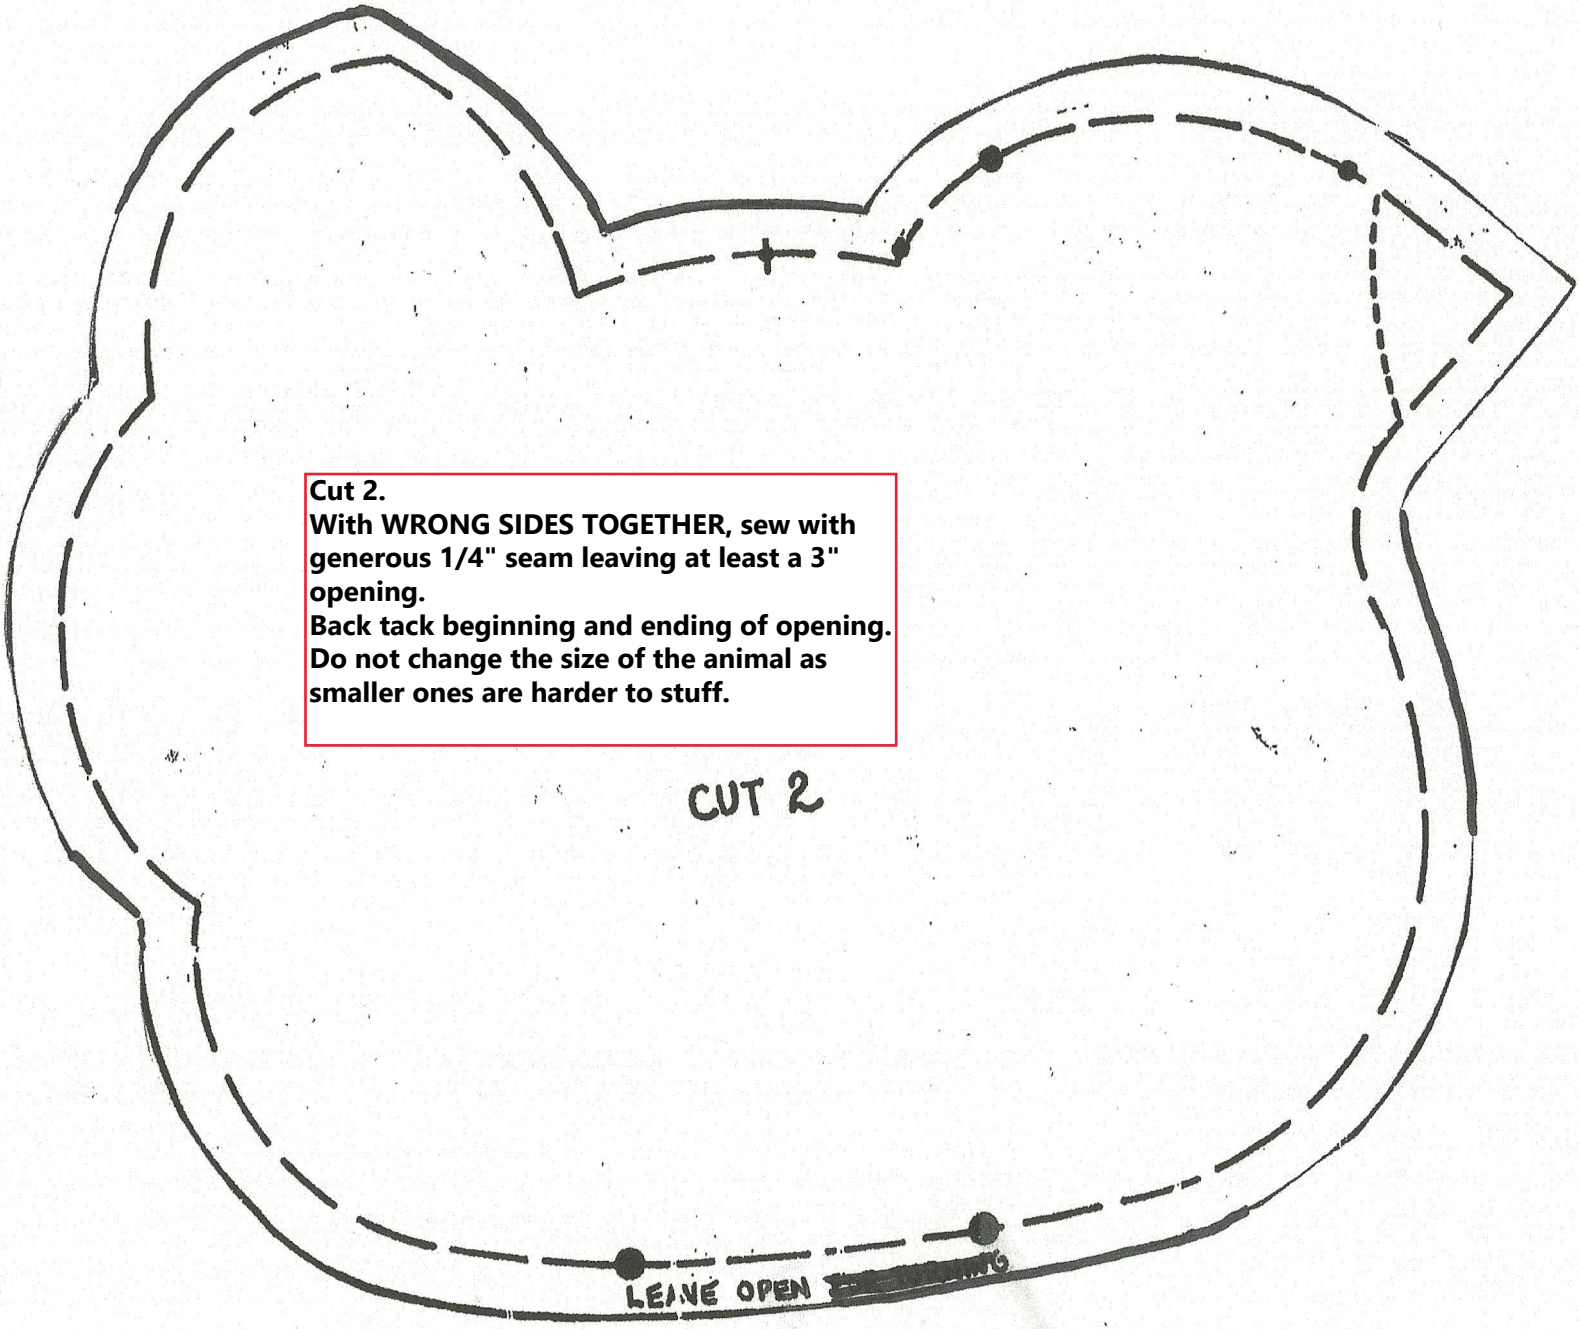
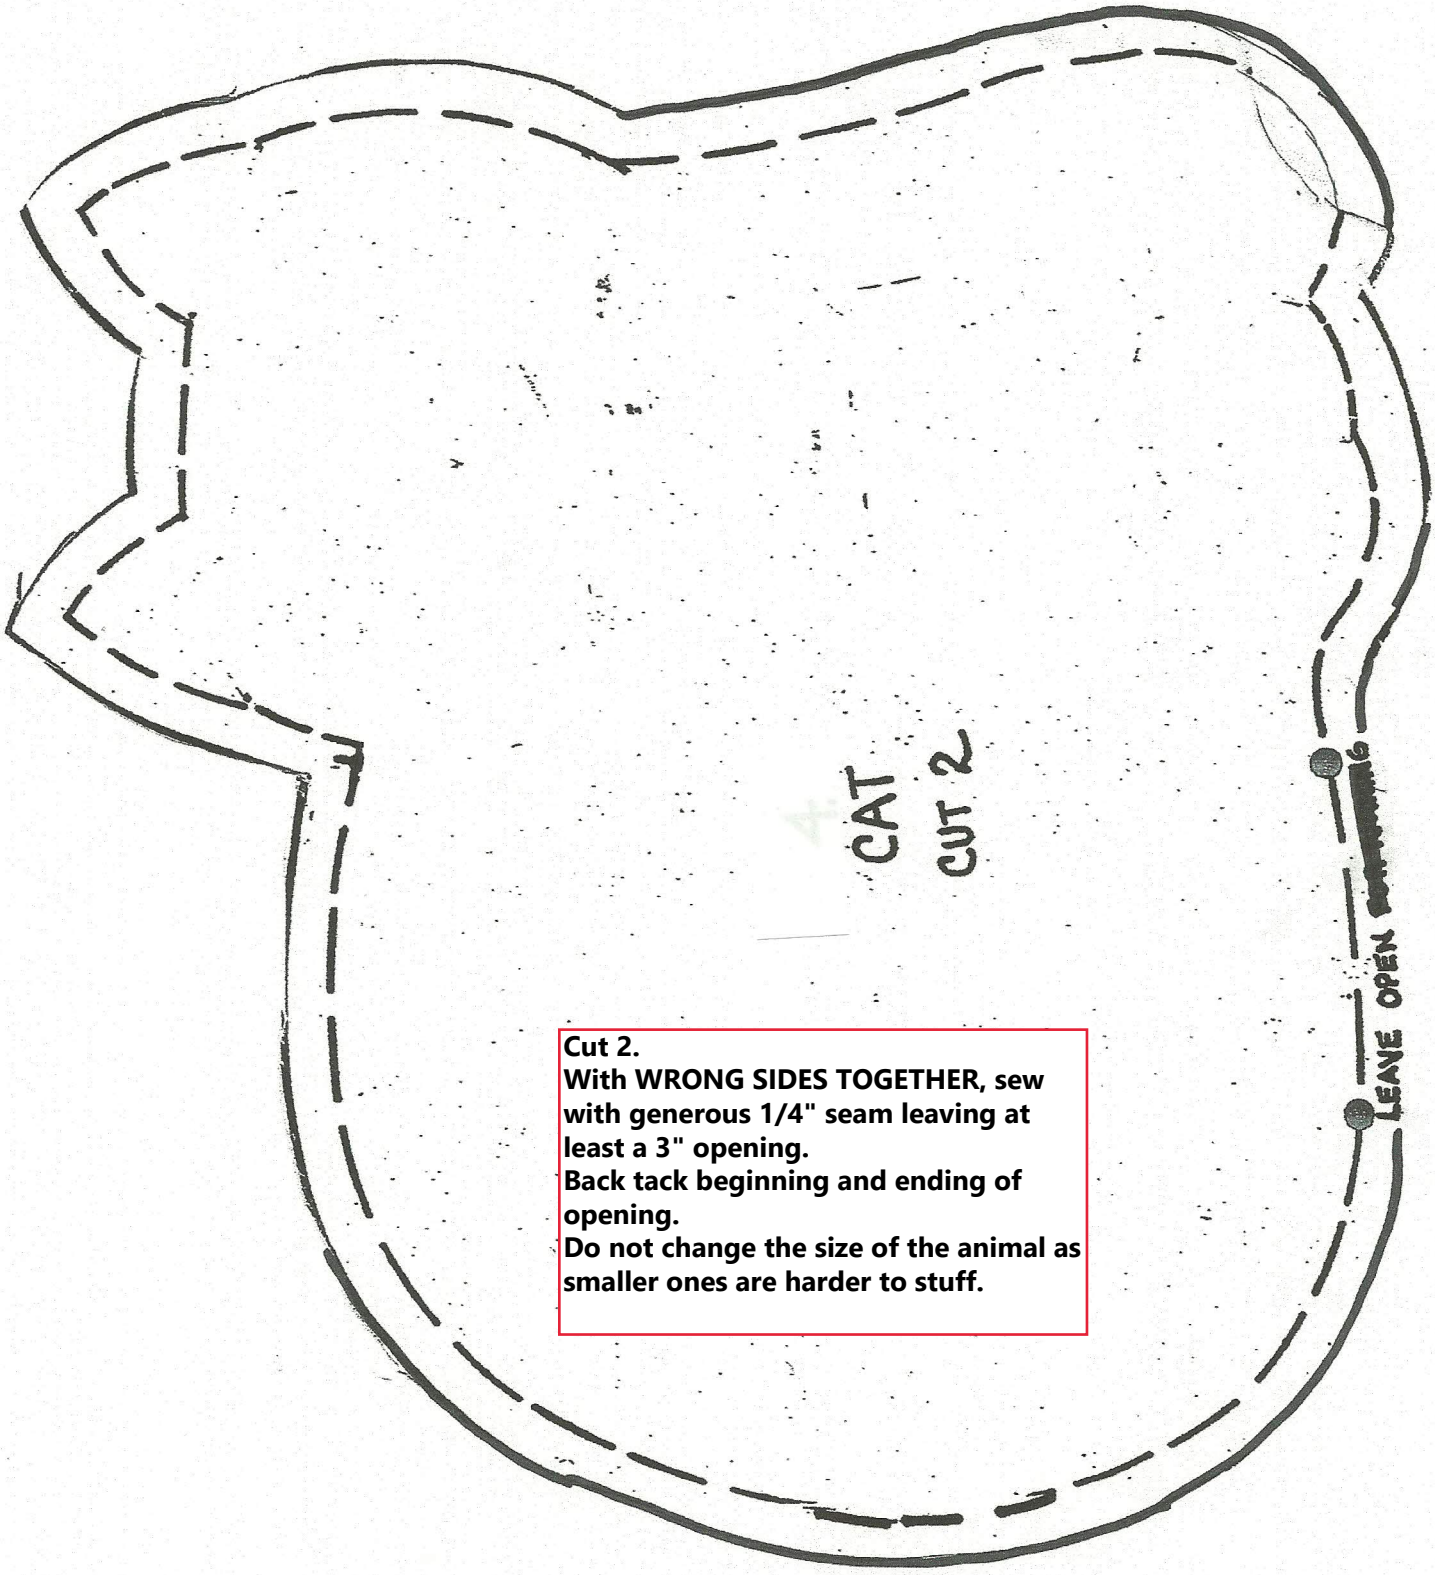
Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.



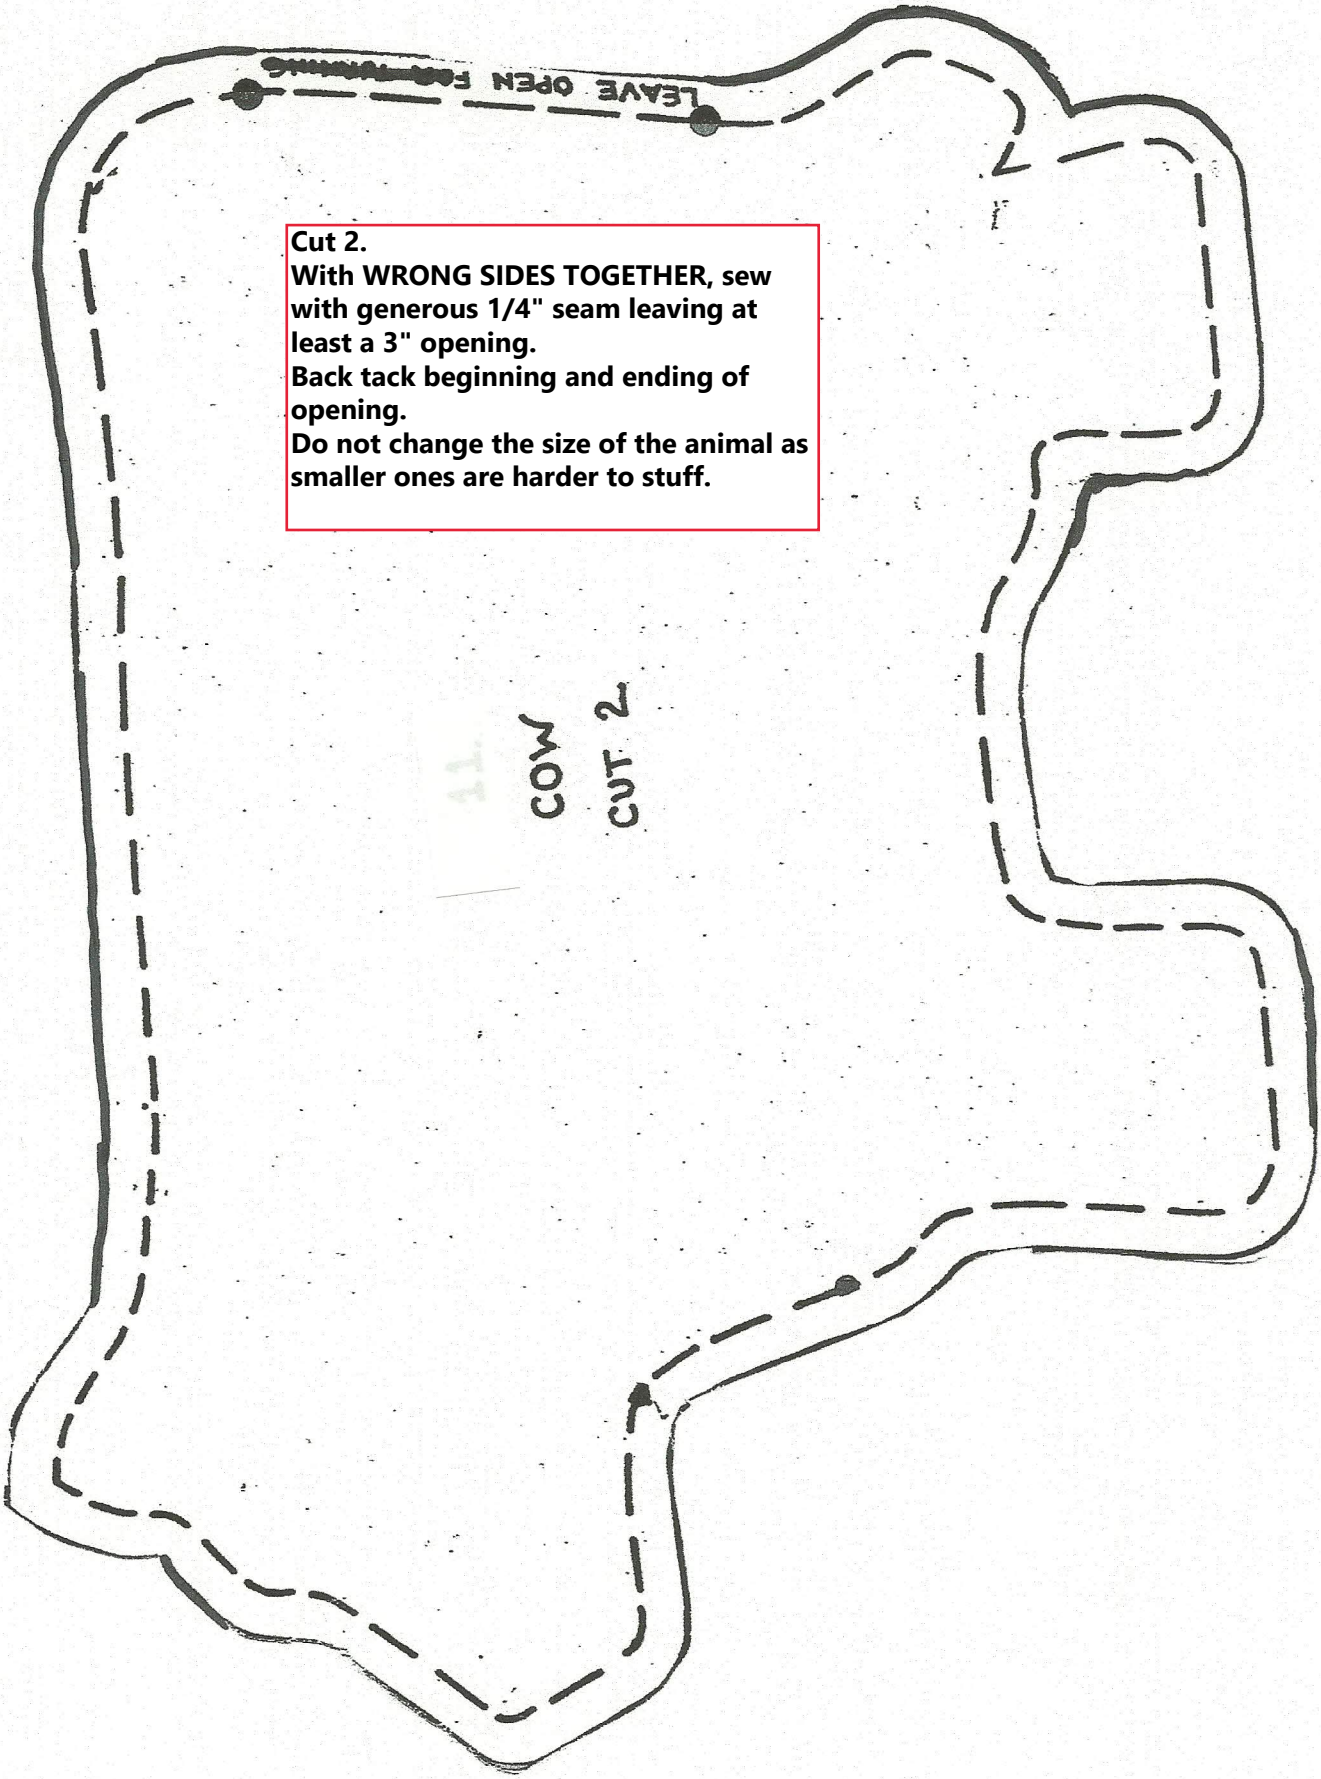
Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.



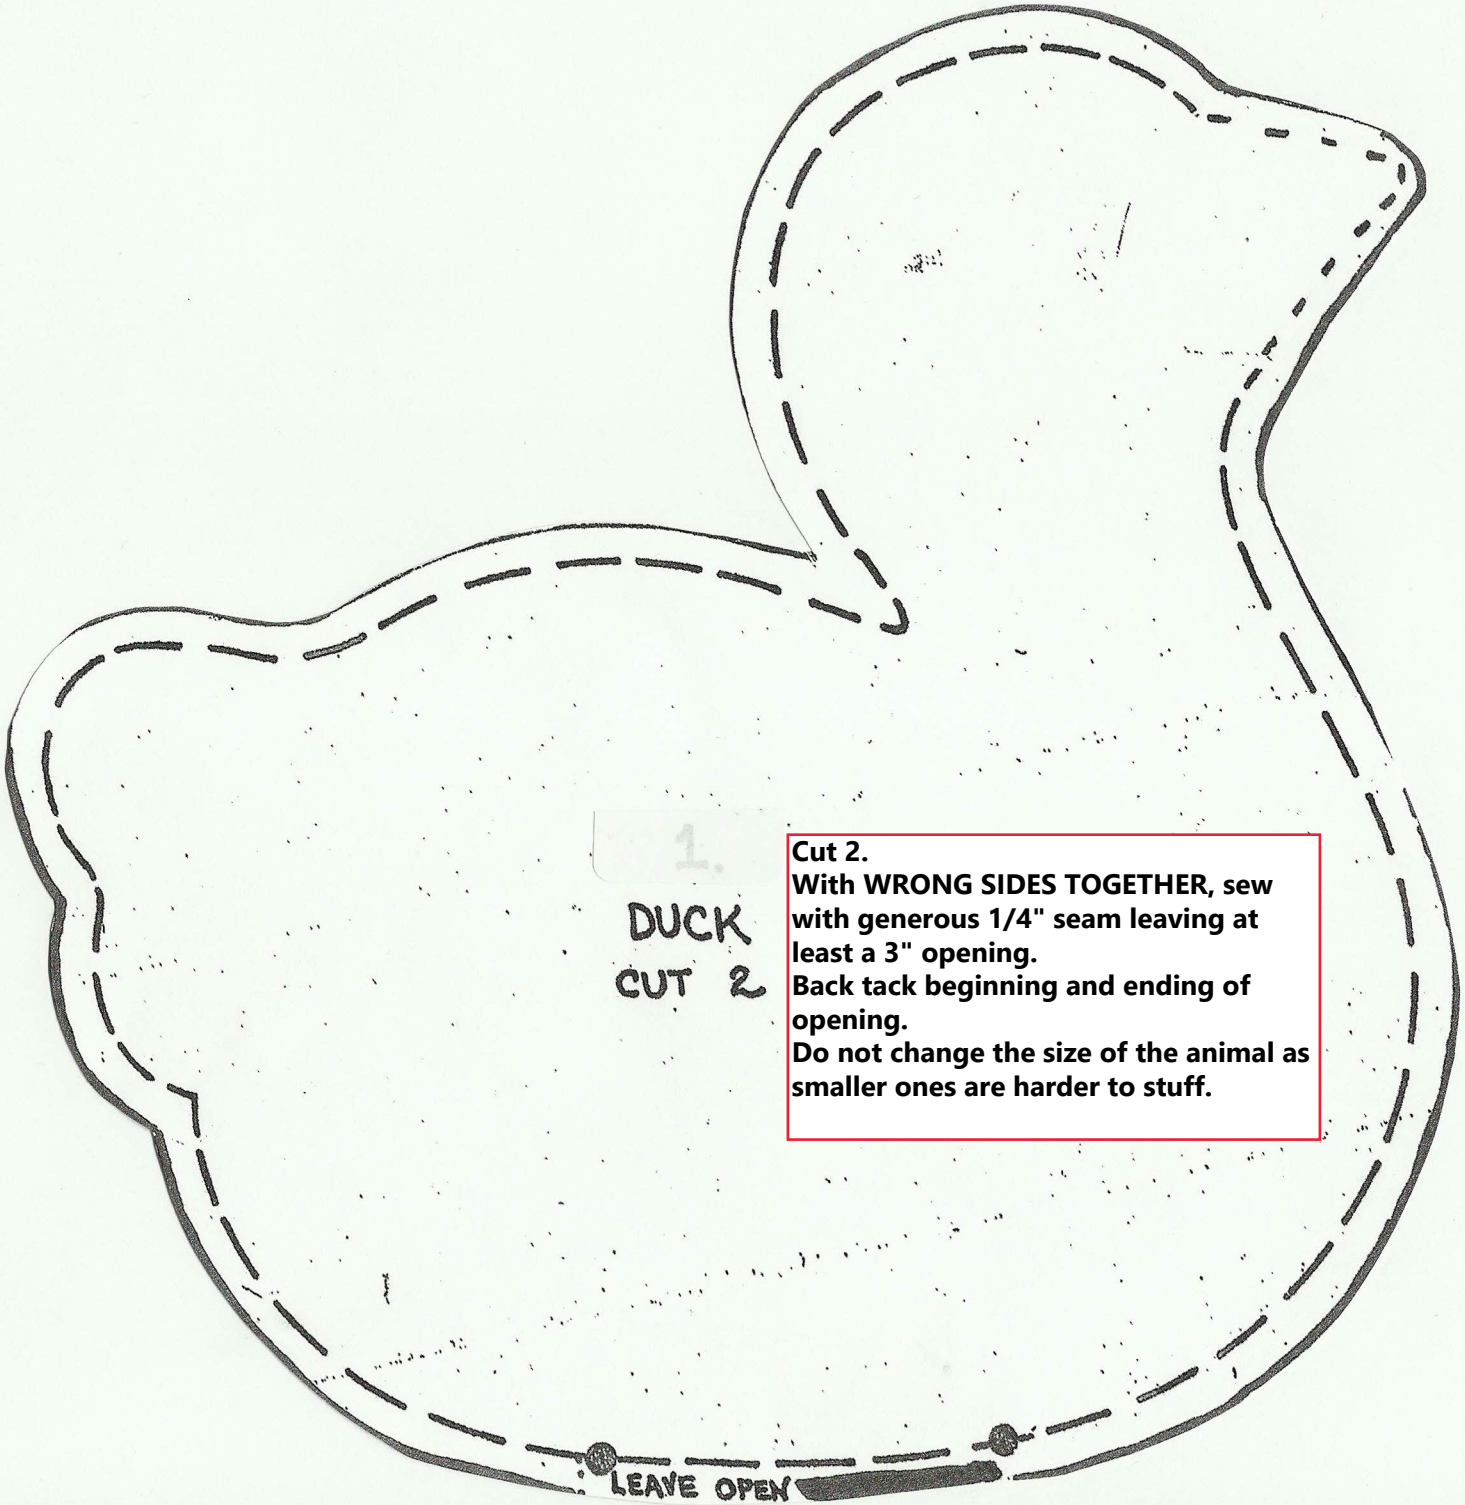
Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.



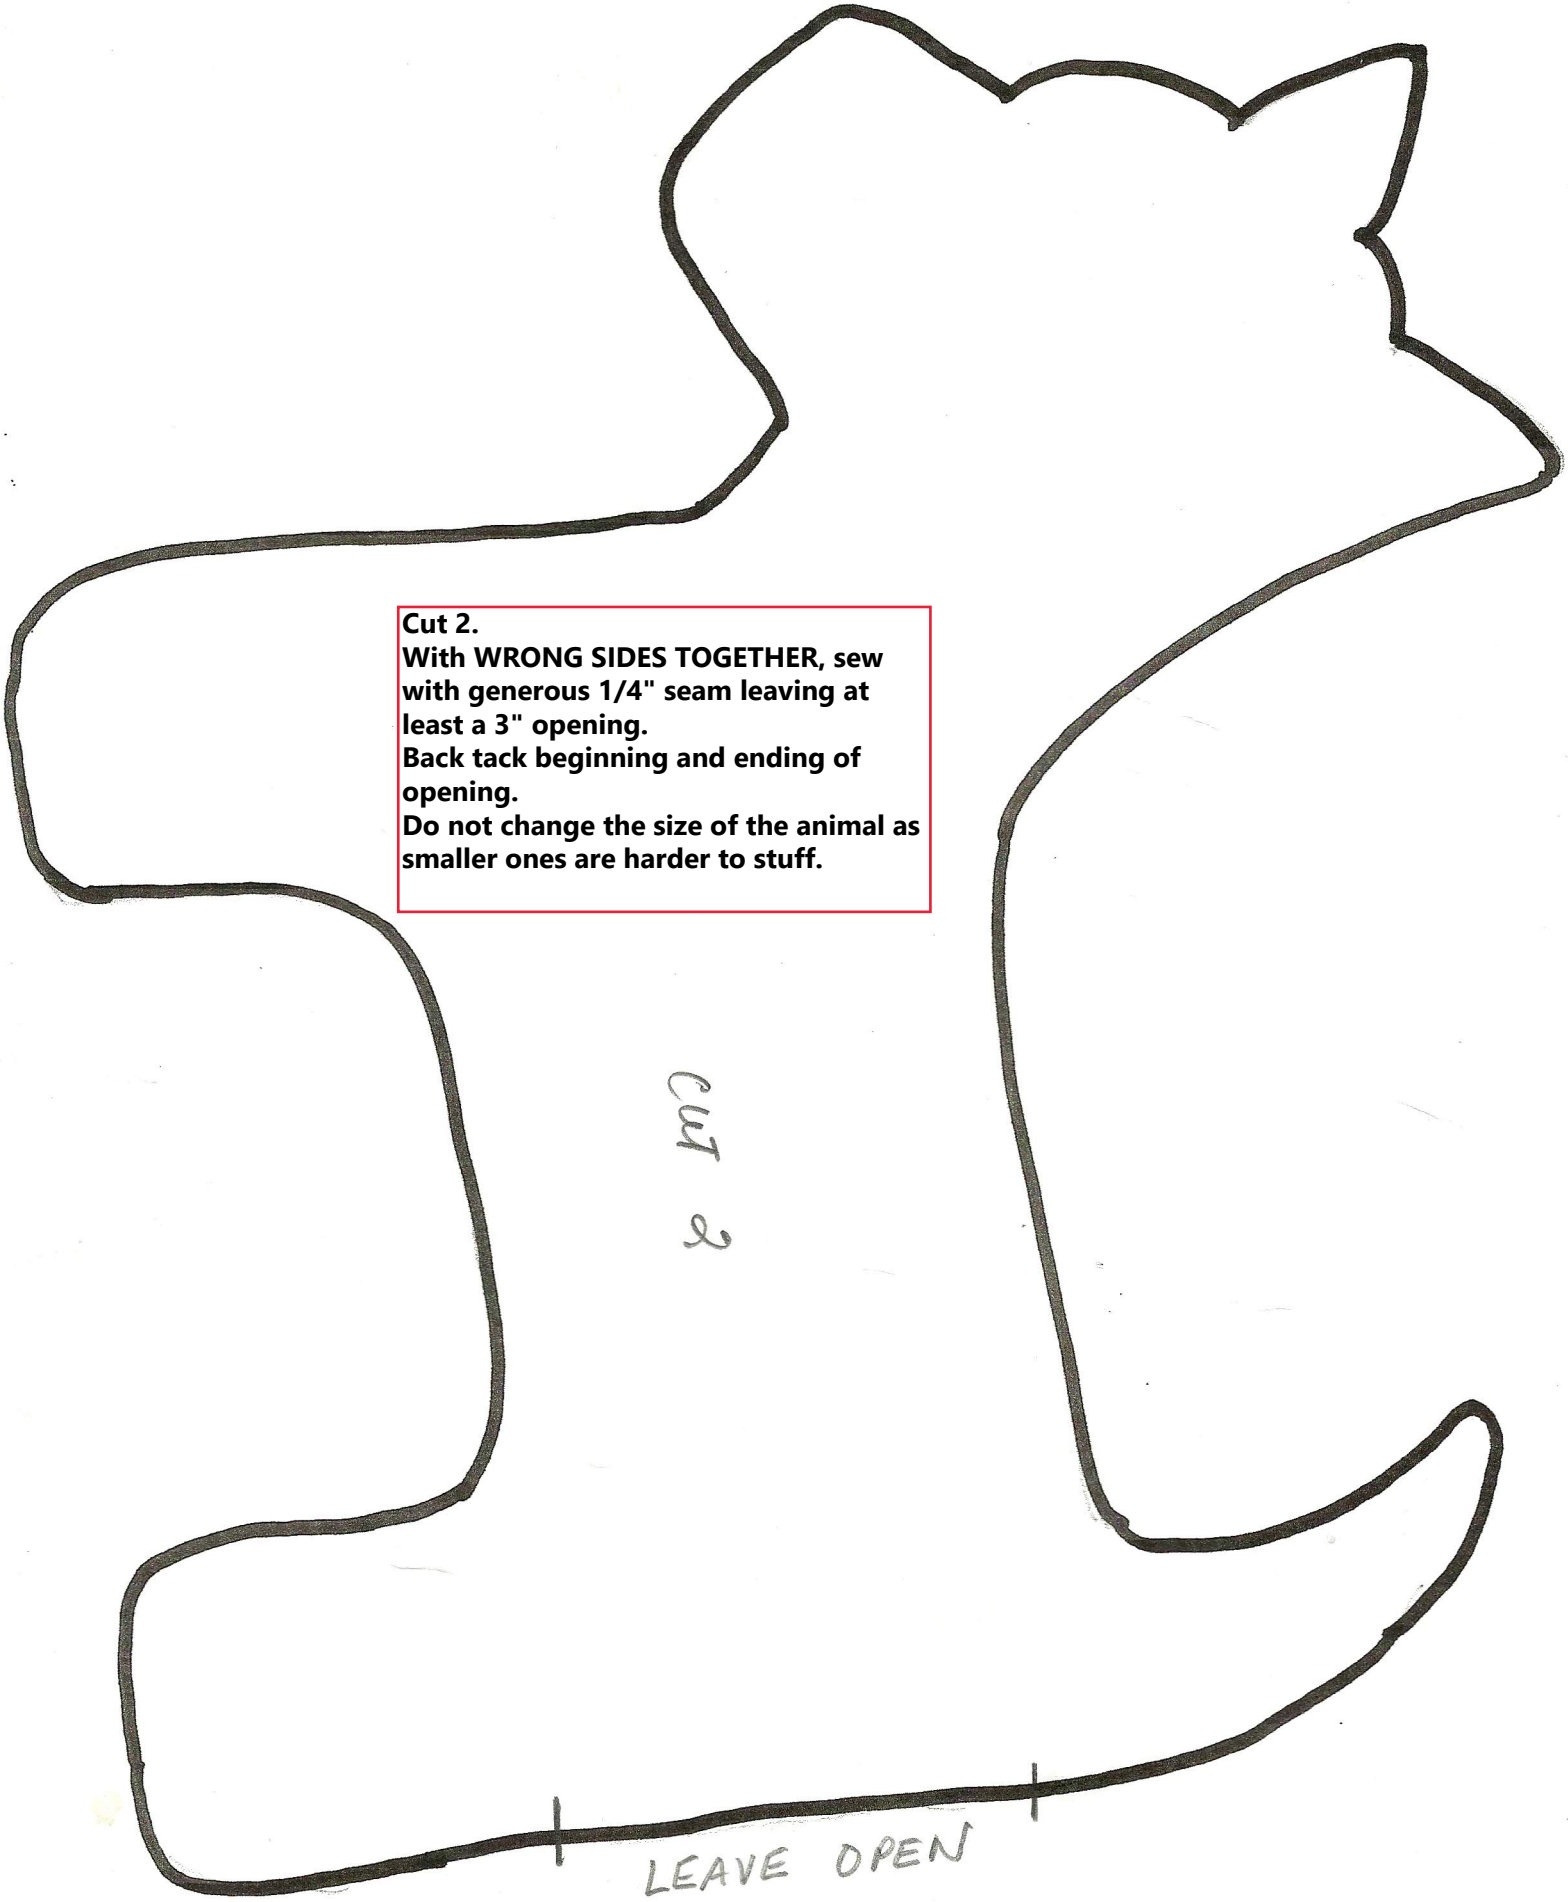
Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.



Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.



Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.



Cut 2.
With WRONG SIDES TOGETHER, sew with generous 1/4" seam leaving at least a 3" opening.
Back tack beginning and ending of opening.
Do not change the size of the animal as smaller ones are harder to stuff.